Pyjama Day

Dear Parents / Caregivers

On Thursday 18 September 2014 we are holding a onesie / pyjama day to raise money for orphaned children from the Open Arms Orphanage in Malawi. Many of you may know Warren and Bec Liackman who are currently living in Malawi and assisting the Open Arms Orphanage and the local school with their own four children.

100% of the money that we raise will go towards sending children to school so that they can receive an education. To send a child to school only costs $30 per year, so we are asking for a gold coin donation for each child that wears their onesie or pyjamas (or you could donate more if you wish!). We will also be selling cakes at recess and lunchtime and most importantly the Canteen will be open and selling nachos for $3.50 each.

If you would like more information on the work that Warren and Bec are doing you can like their Facebook page, Travelling Southern Africa—4 kids and half a clue.

This fundraiser is being run by two of our school mums. If you would like to order a serving of nachos for lunch, please complete the attached lunch order and return with $3.50 per serving to the office by Wednesday 18 September 2014.

Kind Regards

Mrs Karin Hird
